

Prayer & Praise

Fellowship Community Church

May 3, 2026

Please pray for these requests this week!

1. Praise God for a good report for Ezkiel with the cardiologist. Pray for continued healing and growth for him as he turns one year old on Friday. Praise for continued healing and growth in the areas of physical and speech. Pray for Talulah's growth, both physically and in speech. Pray for therapists for her in the areas of speech, physical, and occupational. She needs extra help to grow. Give me strength and wisdom as I support Rachel and Josh. Bless the Wilbur family: Josh, Rachel, Lillian, Talulah, Ezekiel. Christy
2. Pray for my wife, Emily, who has severe pain in her knee. Pray also for our children. Luis
3. Pray the people in our country would love one another and be grateful to our Lord. Pray our congress would wake up and realize that hatred and violence doesn't solve any problem. Pray for protection for the administration. Pray for funding of DHS and SS. Marilyn
4. Continue to pray for direction for me for the next school year. Pray for strength to get through this school year. Pray for my brother, Jonathan, who has fallen away from God. Cheri
5. Please pray for my daughter, Julia, and for my granddaughters, Nova and Aviva. Pray for my great grand kids, Hunter and Violet. Pray for health, safety, and for a new good apartment or single house. Lana
6. Pray for a healing for our nation and for the Trump administration. Pray for healings for those needing mental and physical healing, and those who are depressed and divorced. Pray for Iran civilians and ICE detainees. Pray for the homeless and the grieving. Pray for the FCC family. Pray that we acknowledge those in our paths. Pray that we forge a relationship with you day by day. Anonymous
7. Please pray for my sister, Linda, who is having lingering effects from a concussion she suffered several weeks ago. She has an MRI on 4/28. Betty
8. Praise God for the wonderful Women's Spring Tea yesterday. We were blessed. I loved the choice of Ephesians 1, the fellowship, and the food. Gloria
9. Pray for my brother, Tim, and ask for healing and wisdom for his health condition. Pray God will provide caregivers and provision for his chronic health condition. Glinda
10. Please pray for our country! Pray for protection for our President and his family. The hate needs to stop! Eleni
11. Pray for a healing for my right knee which is affecting my sleep. Pray that I can concentrate and finish my book. Sandra
12. Pray for our daughter and son-in-law as they continue with their infertility struggles. Pray that they can have a healthy pregnancy and baby. Anonymous

13. Praise God! One down, and three more to go. God provided a job for Joel. He will be working at NBA starting mid-May. Prayers and request for jobs for the remaining three of us. Pray for a healing for Cynthia's left shoulder. Pray for an apartment for Joel in NJ/NY area. Joseph
14. Praises for our safe trip to the Midwest to visit an ill brother and sis-in-law, and a friend suffering from Alzheimer's. As hard as their circumstances are, God poured blessings into each day as He allowed us to love them in big and small ways. Bruce and Ann
15. Please pray for two close friends, college friend Brenda, and retired missionary friend Jan, who are both facing cancer surgery in the next few weeks. Pray for wisdom for their surgeons and for God's peace for both Brenda and Jan. They are both holding onto God's promise in Isaiah 41:10. Nancy
16. Praise God that I have qualified to receive some free respite care for my mom over the next few months! Janelle
17. We humbly request your prayers for breaking the worldly LGBTQ stronghold on our children: S.F., mentally and hormonally transitioning from male to female, and M.H. who is practicing homosexuality. Both were raised in Bible teaching, church going, Christian homes. By God's grace the seeds of truth were planted. Pray for those seeds to take root. Please pray for my children and for LGBTQ individuals who don't have anyone fighting a spiritual battle on their behalf. Paul
