September 27, 2026

Please pray for these requests this week!

1. Pray for a safe journey to France for my daughter and son-in-law. Pray for my son who has been second guessing decisions he has made with their new build. Give him a peaceful mind and spirit. Anonymous
2. Pray for the new job of my grandson, Jonathan, and that he does well. Margie
3. Pray for guidance for me in getting a lawyer to get an HVAC problem resolved. My apartment is not going to fix it. Deb
4. Rob is healing and we praise Jesus. Pray for Lindsay who is doing well but is sick on chemo days. Pray that Savannah will always live for Jesus. Pray for Sheila and David, and for her positive changes. She has had no panic attacks lately. Pray for our finances, with Rob not working. Praise that my labs are getting better. Pray for another sewing student for me. Rob and Carrie
5. Pray for a healing for those suffering from the following: physical and mental illness; homelessness; depression; grief; divorce. Pray for those not getting work, for corporate respect for employees, that we acknowledge those in our path. Anonymous
6. Continue prayers for the sale of Josh and Rachel's house. Praise for God's love. May we choose to love God well and bring Him our praise and thanksgiving. Christy

10. My father continues his long-fought battle with cancer. Though his body grows weaker as the disease continues its siege, his mind and spirit remain steadfastly strong. Praise be to God! With the failure of the most recent treatment, we are seeking the next weapon to wield a halt to the advance of the opponent. Pray for strength and guidance. Caleb
11. Please continue to pray for my son, Glenn, for deliverance from alcohol and a healing in his heart, mind, and body. Pray for his salvation. Georgia
12. April was released from the hospital after surviving an aortic tear. She is a surgical nurse and helped doctors know what she had. She still needs help getting out of bed and has at least a three-month recovery at home ahead of her. Ellen
13. Please pray for comfort and peace for my family as we lost my mom, Shirley, this past week. We do praise God that she knew Jesus as her Lord and Savior. Glinda
14. Please continue to pray for Georgia and her son. He was diagnosed with a tumor on his brain. Pray for Lee and her husband who had a stroke and is paralyzed. God is good. Eleni
