Mark 10:46-52

1. What about the account of Bartimaeus challenges you? Encourages you?
2. Were Jesus to ask you "What do you want me to do for you?", how would you respond today?
3. How do you see your need: If you had to describe your deepest need, what would it be? How does that compare to the deepest need David said we all have?
4. How do you see Jesus today? If you were to describe who Jesus is to a friend, how would you do so?
5. How do you see others? Who are the people in your life you have difficulty seeing with compassion? How does Jesus' calling of the blind beggar affect your sight?
6. What has your response to Jesus looked like in recent days, weeks, months, or even years? Would you describe it like Bartimaeus' response? How does it compare?
7. Of the three areas David drew out - our need, Jesus, others - which do you need to see more clearly?
8. How does your ability to see clearly in those areas affect your response to Jesus, to your circumstances, and others?
